Forecast for Thursday 11 May 2023

Weather: Any early mist and fog will clear quickly through the morning, leaving sunny spells. Scattered showers will develop into the afternoon, these often heavy and slow-moving, and carrying the risk of thunder. Showers will ease again through the evening, with some clear spells allowing for some patchy mist and fog to form.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 30%, increasing to 70% by late-morning.

Low cloud and visibility: Low cloud and hill fog, with bases down to around 300-500m early morning, will rise above summits by late-morning. Cloud bases may shroud higher routes in and around heavier showers. Poor or very poor visibility in early mist and fog, becoming very good during the day. Sharp deterioration in any showers to moderate or poor.

Meteorologist's View

Care should be taken if walking in the hills as conditions may deteriorate readily in showers, carrying the risk of thunder and lightning. Gusty in and around any showers, with feels-like temperatures dropping near to freezing across the most exposed tops. Moderate to strong UV levels in sunny spells.
